Spiritual Practices: Silence in worship

Following the series on spiritual practices (or holy habits) we have been introducing the practice of silence in our corporate worship. In every service there will be an opportunity to be quiet before God and allow him to speak into our lives.

We hope this will be an encouragement to incorporate the practice of silence into our personal spiritual lives, that it might strengthen our relationship with Christ and enable us to grow spiritually.

Spiritual Practice

Prayerfully choose five people (or remembering the five you are already paying for and ask these questions:

What is on the minds of your five people? Offer this to God.

Do they know other Christians? Ask God to make some introductions.

What are their hopes for next week? Pray that they are met.

When are you next going to see them? Ask God for an opportunity to mention Christ and the confidence to do so.

What might be stopping them from following Jesus? Pray for the barriers to be broken down (however slowly). How are they feeling? Tell Jesus about this.
